

DRAUGHT BEERS

- SARATOGA LAGER, MARZENBIER, SARATOGA SPRINGS, NEW YORK, 6% ABV 7
German hops and Munich Malt give this beer a perfect balance of bitterness and sweetness. Caramel character and a lightly toasted breadiness make it rich and full on the palate.
- VELTINS PILSENER, GERMAN PILSENER, MESCHEDE-GREVENSTEIN, GERMANY, 4.8% ABV 7
Clean bodied. This beer is creamy and zesty. It delivers a bitter and floral finish and sums up the phrase “easy drinking.”
- OYSTER BAY HONEY ALE, GOLDEN ALE, OYSTER BAY, NEW YORK, 5.2% ABV 8
Brewed with real, local honey from Locust Valley’s “Bee Haven.” This beer offers a smooth finish with hops that are gentle enough to truly let the flavor of honey shine.
- METEOR BLANCHE, WHEAT BEER, ALCASE, FRANCE, 5% ABV 7
Light and refreshing. Floral flavors with a spicy finish. This zesty Blanche has the citrusy flavor that is characteristic of a Witbier, but keeps its own personality as well.
- MONTAUK WATERMELON SESSION IPA, INDIA PALE ALE, MONTAUK, NEW YORK, 4.9% ABV 7
This beer combines three different varieties of hops and is then dry-hopped for seven days. Just a touch of watermelon flavor makes it perfect for the season. Not sweet, with just the right blend of flavors.
- HOFBRAU MAIBOCK, MAIBOCK, GERMANY, 7.2% ABV 9
Lighter in color than most traditional bock style beers, this beer has a buttered bread aroma with a crisp caramel and malt finish. Maibock beers are almost always served in the spring and are often interrelated with festivals and celebrations in the month of May.
- HARPOON SEASONAL, BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS 7
Now an employee owned company, Harpoon Brewery was opened in 1987 on the Boston Waterfront. What started as Harpoon Ale soon grew into a wide selection of seasonal brews. Ask your server for more details!
- ROCKAWAY ESB (EXTRA SPECIAL / STRONG BITTER,) ROCKAWAY, NEW YORK, 6.8% ABV 7
The English style ale comes with an American twist. Amber color and malty sweetness give this beer its reputation as a real beer drinkers beer. Also known as a buttery and smooth finish.
