

Draught Beers

Saratoga Lager, Märzenbier, Saratoga Springs, New York, 6% ABV$7

German hops and Munich Malt give this beer a perfect balance of bitterness and sweetness. Caramel character and a lightly toasted breadiness make it rich and full on the palate.

Speakeasy Pop Gun Pilsner, German Pilsner, San Francisco, California, 4.7% ABV$7

Clean body with hints of honey and malty sweetness. This beer delivers a bitter and floral finish with notes of tangerine and spice.

Oyster Bay Honey Ale, Golden Ale, Oyster Bay, New York, 5.2% ABV$8

Brewed with real, local honey from Locust Valley's 'Bee Haven'. This beer offers a smooth finish, with hops that are gentle enough to truly let the flavor of the honey shine.

Ommegang Witte, Witbier, Cooperstown, New York, 5.1% ABV$7

A light and refreshing wheat beer that has been spiced with coriander and sweet orange peel. This beer has a subtle tartness with a slight tang in the finish.

Montauk Session IPA, India Pale Ale, Montauk, New York, 4.9% ABV$7

This beer combines three different varieties of hops, and is then dry-hopped for seven days. This fermentation process gives the IPA a spicy, citrusy, and incredibly light and clean finish. Easy-drinking and surprisingly mild for an India Pale Ale.

Kelso Nut Brown Lager, Dark Lager, Brooklyn, New York, 5.75% ABV$8

Toasted nuttiness and mild hops give this sessioner it's smooth finish. This dark lager leaves a lasting flavor of toffee, caramel and vanilla on the palate.

Harpoon Seasonal, Boston, Massachusetts,$7

Now an employee-owned company, Harpoon Brewery was opened in 1987 on the Boston Waterfront. What started as Harpoon Ale soon grew into a wide selection of seasonal brews. Ask your server for details!

New Belgium Fat Tire Ale, Amber Ale, Fort Collins, Colorado, 5.2% ABV.....$7

Toasty Malt, gentle sweetness, and hoppy bitterness make this beer a smooth and classic Amber Ale. This beer boasts a subtle flavor of fennel and green apple, with a slight caramel finish.
